

Glow Night Event Marketing Promotion Recap – October 2025

1. Campaign Performance Overview

Metric	Event Ad	Video Ad
Spend	$52.29	$116.75
Reach	2,027	5,720
Event Responses	242	-
Video Plays	-	10,542
Hook Rate	-	27%
Top Age	35–44	35–44
Top Gender	Women 97%	Women 68%
Cost per Result	$0.21 (women)	$0.46 (women)

2. Attendance and Conversion

- Total Attendees Counted: 739
- QR Check-ins: 638 (86% conversion rate)
- New visitors added to CCB tracking groups for future engagement.

3. Lead Source Insights (from 158 family registrations)

Source	Percent
Facebook	44.9%
Personal Invite	36%
Church Announcement	29%
Yard Sign	18%
Preschool	17%
KC Parent Magazine	11%

4. Key Takeaways

- Facebook drove nearly half of all registrations at the lowest cost.
- Women ages 35–44 were the dominant audience.

- Check-in rate improved to 86%, the highest so far.
- Word-of-mouth remains strong through personal invites and announcements.

5. 2026 Event Promotion Recommendations

1. Increase video ad spend by 25–30% next year.
2. A/B test creative aimed at dads to broaden reach.
3. Keep QR check-in system; replace raffles with stronger prompts.
4. Retarget Facebook event responders for Advent and Easter.
5. Include preschool and KC Parent audiences earlier in campaign.

6. Promotional Cost Efficiency Summary

Total Promotional Spend: $975.44

Total Attendance: 739 people

Cost per Attendee: $1.32

Facebook Cost per 1,000 Reach: $21.82

Estimated ROI (based on 25% ongoing engagement): 18.9%

Cost Allocation by Channel

Channel	Cost ($)
Facebook Ads (combined)	$169.04
Yard Signs	$150.50
Door Hangers	$168.40
KC Parent Ad	$487.50
Internal Print (Flyers, Life at Cards)	No cost

Insights:

- Facebook advertising delivered the highest engagement for the lowest spend per impression.
- KC Parent had the highest cost but contributed to steady brand awareness among families.
- Yard signs and door hangers remain effective for local reach and visual reminders.
- Overall, the event achieved a strong cost-to-impact ratio with a cost of just $1.32 per guest.

